Important Matters to be

With Country

Aug. 5. (P)—Andrew W. Mellon, American Secretary of the Treasury, was received by Premier Mussolini in the latter's private study at the Chigi Palace today.

The Secretary, who was unaccompanied, arrived in an informal manner, and after a brief conversation with the Italian Premier for about an hour and a half in the study of the latter, he went to the office of the Secretary of Finance, where he was received by the latter's Secretary, who joined him in a brief conversation at the time.

Another meeting was held in the study of the Italian Premier, in which the Secretary of Finance and the Secretary of the Treasury discussed matters of mutual interest.

CONFERENCE HINTED

It is believed that today's visit was, in fact, a preliminary to a more formal conference between the two governments, which is expected to take place in a few days. It is also expected that the Secretary of the Treasury will be accompanied by a more detailed conference with the Italian Premier.

Several meetings between Secretary Mellon and Italian officials of an official character, also are expected to take place. Meanwhile, the Secretary of the Treasury is arranging an official visit to the American Secretary of the Treasury.

It was with Premier Mussolini that the Secretary of the Treasury discussed matters of mutual interest, and the Secretary of the Treasury was impressed with the country.

LANDLORD FOE OF BACHELOR

Would Evict Man From Flat
Because He Is Not Married

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—William Housman, owner of an apartment-house in Long Island City, started an action in the Municipal Court yesterday to dispossess William Fuhrman, one of his tenants, because Fuhrman is a bachelor.

Housman set forth in his complaint that when Fuhrman took the apartment several months ago he said he was a family man. Later Housman learned Fuhrman was unmarried.

ment was mentioned, but in a purely "historical" fashion. Secretary Mellon told the Chamber of Deputies that he was favorably impressed by what he had seen thus far in Italy while the Premier thanked him for the honor of his visit.

The remainder of Secretary Mellon's day was divided between resting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David Bruce, and in sightseeing. Immediately after his visit to the Chigi Palace, he and Finance Minister Volpi attended a ceremony at which Premier Mussolini presented the honorary citizenship of Rome to Gen. Umberto Nobile, the captain of the Norge.

The Secretary's son, Paul, arrived here tonight by automobile from Geneva. He will spend several days accompanying his father on sightseeing trips.

RESULTS IN FIGHT

LONDON, Aug. 5. (P)—The question as to whether South Africa shall have a new national flag with the Union Jack included, recently resulted in a free-for-all fight at a meeting in Durban, South Africa, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express. Several men were injured.

DYING OF RIFLE WOUND

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 5. (P)—Earl Washburn, 35 years of age, rancher of Berryessa Valley, is said to be dying from a gunshot wound received yesterday when his rifle, which he always carried with him on his truck, jarred from its scabbard and was discharged.

RATIFICATION FORECAST

FOR DEBT AGREEMENT

PARIS, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—The likelihood of ratifying the Mellon-Berenger debt agreement has grown decidedly in the past few days. It was discussed in the Cabinet yesterday and the question was raised as to whether it was possible to ratify both the British and American debt settlements before Parliament goes on its vacation.

Until the past few days it was doubted whether the question could be placed before the Chamber of Deputies at this session, but now there is a growing feeling that it may even be ratified. It will be brought up very soon, probably after the constitutional assembly to convene at Versailles to establish a sinking fund for the retirement of treasury bonds.

RATIFICATION FORECAST

FOR DEBT AGREEMENT

PARIS, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—The likelihood of ratifying the Mellon-Berenger debt agreement has grown decidedly in the past few days. It was discussed in the Cabinet yesterday and the question was raised as to whether it was possible to ratify both the British and American debt settlements before Parliament goes on its vacation.

With this note as a tranquilizer to French opinion Poincare will, according to reliable information, ask Parliament to ratify the Mellon-Berenger agreement without further delay in order to clear up the international financial atmosphere and open for France the possibility of American credit.

The decision to ratify the American debt agreement is of very recent date. The new government has a whole series of maneuvers leading up to the stabilization of the franc, which it is letting out one at a time—and to put them through successfully it is necessary to have a wide measure of public confidence.

Poincare has financial plans which necessitate opening all the money markets in the world to France or rather that none of them be closed. He means to try and establish French credit on such a firm basis that French capitalists who have exported about 40,000,000,000 francs worth of capital in the past two years, will repatriate it because they can make money by so doing.

FRENCH CAPITAL

It is estimated there is 200,000,000 pounds of French capital now in England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and Egypt. Most of the French investments have been in pounds. Selling of any considerable portion of these investments would bring a flood of francs back to France.

But timid French capital needs encouragement to come home. It will have the necessary encouragement the government believes, if France's credit is re-established everywhere. The difficulty is to overcome the fear of the French Parliament that the United States may prove a hard creditor but the advantages of reopening American credit simultaneously with the gradual recovery of the franc will be sufficient in the view of the government to convince Parliament.

The Dawes plan either will be developed or modified.

POINCARÉ WINS IN THREE TESTS

Sinking Fund to Retire Bond Issues Approved

Tobacco Monopoly Measure Substitutes Defeated

New Franc Decline Laid to Borrowings

PARIS, Aug. 5. (P)—Premier Poincaré today got the Chamber of Deputies to adopt another measure with which he hopes to ease the financial path of the government. This was the bill providing for a sinking fund to cover the retirement of national defense and treasury bonds. It was adopted by the Chamber, 420 to 140.

Previously in the same session the Premier scored victories by obtaining two sizable votes of confidence. The Chamber rejected, 350 to 172, a proposal by the Socialists that the government continue control of the tobacco monopoly instead of placing it in the hands of a private company, as desired by the Premier.

Then the Chamber rejected an amendment to the government's financial bill calling for the fixing of the price of ordinary tobacco by decree. This vote was 360 to 190.

FRANC DECLINES

Although the franc has shown a favorable trend the last few days, it lost slight ground today but recovered somewhat at the closing of the day's trading. Opening at 33.50 to the dollar, an hour later it had dropped to 34.25 and later, with the information contained in the Bank of France's statement that the government had to resort to further borrowing, the franc unit dropped again to 35.62.

FOREIGN MONEY SOUGHT

Defending the measure, Premier Poincaré denied that it involved a loan and assured the Deputies that the government would resort to foreign credits only when the value of the franc and improved. The ultimate aim of the measure approved tonight is to make it possible for the Bank of France to purchase gold bullion and stable foreign currency with French francs at the current exchange, such purchases hitherto having been forbidden by law except when the buying was on the basis of the prewar rate of exchange. The vote was 365 to 181.

ANGELENO FREED IN MEXICO

Local Man Charged With Assaulting Father in Row Over Divorce Liberated From Jail

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 5. (P)—John C. Howard of Los Angeles, who was arrested last night on a charge of assaulting his father, John F. Howard, a mayonnaise manufacturer of Haverhill, Mass., was released today.

Howard, who came to Mexico with his brother, Albert F. Howard, in an endeavor to have his father make a settlement upon their mother in Haverhill, was held incommunicado, but was released today after United States Vice-Consul McCord went to the prison to investigate. Meanwhile Victor Velasquez, attorney for the sons, filed a petition stating that John's arrest without a warrant was unjustified and that the charges against him had not been substantiated.

The complaint was made by Mexican detectives who said they found John and Arthur beating their father at the latter's hotel. Charges and counter-charges have been numerous among the Howards since the sons came to Mexico, and filed charges that their father had committed perjury and bigamy in getting a Mexican divorce and marrying Mrs. Eleanor B. Phillips of Milwaukee.

An assault charge also was made against Albert Howard, but he was not arrested. Velasquez today reiterated his assertion last night that the arrest was a "frame-up" for the purpose of having the sons expelled from Mexico.

The United States Embassy and consulate made perfectly clear that the American officials were not intervening in the private family row, and that they have had nothing to do in the fight between the father and sons. The consulate merely investigated complaints that an American citizen had been arrested and jailed without a warrant and was being held incommunicado.

Such an investigation, it was said, would be made in behalf of an American citizen regardless of the merits of the case.

Blind Angeleno Singer Freed in Eastern Court

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—Kenneth Kenneil of Los Angeles, a blind banjo player and singer who was arrested while playing in front of the Macy store at Broadway and Thirty-fifth street, was discharged in the night court tonight.

CLAIM SESSIONS TO BE RENEWED
Will Settle American and English War Accounts
Conversations Will Open in London Next Month
Question of Blockade to Enter Discussions
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—Conversations regarding commercial and other claims pending between the United States and British governments or their nationals are expected to be renewed in London next month, although there is no indication here that an American mission will be sent to England for that purpose.
They have been in progress for many months and are of a preparatory character. While some of the claims with which they are concerned are the outgrowth of the Allied blockade of the Central Powers prior to American entry into the war, many of the claims have no connection with it and some surprise was expressed at the State Department today over the view in London that discussion of them would bring up the general question of the British war-time blockade policy.
The State Department indicated that the conversations thus far have been confined to an examination of the various categories of claims involved, among them those of the British Admiralty against the American Navy in connection with war

INFANT PLAYS WITH RATTLE
Mother Finds Child Tossing With Eighteen-Inch Rattlesnake
CARVILLE (Mo.) Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—While Mrs. Floyd Farwell, was busy doing her housework she put her baby on the floor to play. She left the room a few minutes and when she returned she found the infant playing with an eighteen-inch rattlesnake. The child was not bitten.
operations, and similar American claims against Great Britain, counter-claims of the two governments of the same general character, and the claims of individual citizens of both nations.
Thus far, nothing in the nature of negotiations for a settlement agreement have been taken up. The American Navy Department has about completed work on its claims, and Spencer Phenix, attached to the office of Assistant Secretary Olds of the State Department, has been looking into the subject, generally, in co-operation with British representatives here.
BRITISH FACING BLOCKADE CLAIMS
LONDON, Aug. 5. (AP)—Now that the mission of Brig.-Gen. Andrews, American prohibition enforcement chief, has been concluded, the British government is preparing for the reception of the next American embassy, who is expected in September.
This mission, it is stated in official quarters, is expected to raise the difficult question of American war-time shippers' "blockade" claims, which United States Senator Borah has recently brought up. British officials are reticent with regard to the forthcoming negotiations, stating only that "many interdepartmental claims arising out of the war" will be considered.
Great Britain has various counter-claims, such as the reconditioning of American ships, to settle. When the blockade claims became the subject of press comment here several months ago, it was said in official circles that it will be impossible to settle British claims with further obligations in the form of additional American debts and that the principle of the claims will not be admitted.

Trunk Seized Containing Dope Worth Fortune
NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (AP)—A black steamer trunk that was unloaded with other baggage from the Montreal Express at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street station of the New York Central Railroad early today was seized by Federal agents and found to contain $100,000 worth of narcotics.
The trunk was sent out of Russia to Switzerland and thence to Montreal, the Federal agents believe. Two similar trunks are believed to be en route to New York and a watch was set at all the railroad terminals in the city.
Government agents had been working on the case for two months, it was said.
Although the legislative value of the narcotics, as given as $100,000, the supply confiscated probably would have been sold for $1,000,000, according to the government agents. On the basis they arrived at the estimate of $3,000,000 as the probable selling value of the illegal shipments in the three trunks.

LITIGATION RENEWED OVER INDIAN'S ESTATE
TULSA (Okla.) Aug. 5. (AP)—Renewed litigation involving the estate of Katie Fixico, wealthy Creek Indian woman of Okmulgee, began yesterday in Federal Court in an action for $4,000,000 damages and title to 166 acres of oil lands in Okmulgee county. The suit was brought by J. F. Smith and W. L. Ransom, attorneys, who assert they bought the land from Katie Fixico in 1914. They ask $4,000,000 damages for waste in oil and gas and equipment and sales of oil since the land transaction in 1914. Four others are named as defendants.

KELLSFORS (Finland) Aug. 5. An appeal also was made to help eliminate nationalistic prejudices by antiwar agitation. Each country has been asked to discover and develop some particular service to humanity.

Se teme una Nueva Guerra en los Balcanes
SOFIA (Bulgaria), Agosto 5.—Existen en nuestra frontera con Rumania verdaderos preliminares de un estado de guerra. Después del estado de sitio declarado hace poco por Rumania a lo largo de toda la frontera búlgara de Dobruja, y en una zona de dieciocho millas de ancho, para poner coto a las incursiones de irregulares, se están dictando ahora medidas más severas.
El prefecto rumano de Silistria ha anunciado a los aldeanos de poblaciones vecinas habitadas por búlgaros, que por cada soldado rumano que maten éstos, habrán de fusilarlos veinte búlgaros. En muchas aldeas no se permite a los habitantes que salgan de sus casas después de las 7 de la noche, ni antes de las 6 de la mañana, entorpeciendo de este modo la cosecha.
Dice un boletín oficial búlgaro que unos guardias de la frontera búlgara oyeron hace tres días tirotes en Ertirpalana; pero lo atribuyeron a prácticas de tiro al blanco de las tropas yugoslavas. En muchas aldeas no se permiten a los habitantes que salgan de sus casas después de las 7 de la noche, ni antes de las 6 de la mañana, entorpeciendo de este modo la cosecha.

Hollywooders Land on Shea to Trim Sacs

was stopped by Mulcahy on his second time at bat, when he popped to Cook. Monroe made it ten hits in a row when he singled to left in the third inning, but he wasn't quite able to equal the record hung up by Eddie Collins and Tris Speaker. The bases were filled with Solons when Monroe fanned, so it's just as well for the Stars that he didn't equal the record.

Sacramento drew two walks and a single in the first inning, but failed to score. Monroe broke up the rally when he tried to steal first on a short-passed ball, but Cook threw him out.

The Stars opened right up, with their attack on Shea, punching four hits, a walk and an error to give them three runs for a starter.

Johnny Frederick opened the round by hitting a home run, which sent him to third with a single across second. O'Doul shot a one-base rap to right and Frederick scored. Zoelner beat out a double by Claude Shea and Knight tangle in their efforts to get it, filling the bases. Fritz Coumbe, back in the game for the first time since his engagement with Old Man Intuensa, singled between Davis and Monroe, Gooch and O'Doul romping over the bases. Zoelner was caught off second, Koehler to French for the first out. Osborne dropped Kerr's fly, putting Coumbe and Kerr on base sacks. Shea moved the pair to second and third by uncorking a wild pitch. Lee and Cook were both easy infield outs so no more runs scored.

WALKS THREE SACS
 Mulcahy filled the bases with Sacs by walking three men in the second inning, but there were two out when he leaved the final pass and he got out of the hole without allowing any runs, when Monroe failed to Cook to end the round.

Hollywood got to Shea for two more in the third when Zoelner doubled against the right-field screen and came home ahead of Johnny Kerr, who slapped one far over the garden wall into thirty-ninth street.

Mulcahy made his departure in the fourth, which he started by walking French. Bill Cunningham, batting for Shea, tripped to right and French registered a Kopp's sacrifice fly to Frederick brought Cunningham home.

When Mulcahy threw two wide ones to Monroe, Vito Salles, a hulk and sent in Fullerton, who retired the side without any further excitement.

Sweeney battled for Hughes to start the inning and walked. Kopp singled to center, Sweeney stopping at second. Monroe hit to Kerr, who threw to Lee for Kopp at second. Lee's throw bounded off Kopp's head into left field and Sweeney scored and Monroe took second. Knight walked, but Davis halted the rally by smashing left a double play. Lee to Kerr to Coumbe.

LIPTON TROPHY Mails Beaten as Ducks Beat Seals, 7 to 4

Lady Betty noosed her out for last place.

HARD-LOCK JOE
 Joe Jessup and his Windward, which has made the San Diego Yacht Club burgee a bit of hunting to be feared among the Star-loop skipper, ran into hard luck when he fouled another craft at the start and was forced out. Twenty-four boats crossed the starting line and with the breeze, plus a Sunday, seas, fouls were sure to occur. Rear Commodore George E. Vibert hit the same snag and his Arcurus was also out at the start.

Commodore B. Ray Schauer of the Southern California Yacht Association has all but clinched the championship, as he brought the "Movie Star" in a winner for the second consecutive day. Not only that, but the Movie Star retained the Santa Barbara Lipton trophy for the Star class which she won last year. The Movie Star was across the finish line at 2:58. 28. Ralph Noble of the Newport fleet skipped the Alcayone into second place at 3:25. 38. and Harry Hiltner's Regulus was five seconds behind, a good third.

While the Stars and R's held the limelight, Clem Stone's Tava staged a battle with Charles Wintman's yacht. Wintman that rivaled anything seen of Balboa since the beginning of all times. Carrying every stitch of canvas she could carry, the Tava finished a beautiful picture as she plowed across the finish line. However, the Wintman won on her handicap. Charles Dabney's Bayardere was second, the Tava third, and Dan Leubersheimer's yawl Oriona, fourth.

WIMITCH NOSED OUT
 Once more on the second six-mile triangle, the Wintman gained the advantage only to lose on the run before the wind. PAUL DE HATE FIGHTS DEMSKY

Australian Favored to Win Over Compton Boy

Jack Roper Taken Off Card Because of Illness

Paul De Hate, the Compton boy who made a great fight against Jimmy Duffy just ten days ago, starts in his second main event tonight at the Hollywood American Legion stadium when he fights that great Australian.

Demskey, a pupil of the old school and one of the best-looking fighters to make his debut in California in a long time, has had two fights and won both hands. He beat Eddie McGovern and Roscoe Hall without much trouble. On the strength of his showing in those bouts he has been booked for a fight with De Hate.

Manager Tom Galligan of the Hollywood American Legion stadium is experimenting tonight. De Hate is known as a slashing hitter. He is a boy with a knockout wallop and Hollywood fans have always shown a preference for this type of boxer. During the last few weeks Dutch Meyers has had De Hate working with Bert Colima to polish up his boxing and the results have been very satisfactory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5. (P)—John McDonough, Los Angeles sports promoter, announced today he was making efforts to sign Harold (Brick) Muller, all-American end of the University of California "Wonder team" a few years ago to captain a professional football eleven in the Southern California city. McDonough said he was prepared to offer Muller approximately $25,000 for some fourteen games.

The former California star, who is studying medicine here, could not be located today and is believed to be out of the city.

Vernon Main Event Still is Undecided

No substitute match for the postponed Baby Joe Gans-Musky Callahan match had been signed up to a late hour last night by Mitchmaker Hayden Whitham of Vernon.

The portly one is working on a George Godfrey-Sailor Jimmy Byrne argument and also has in mind a match between Izzy Schwartz and George Rivers.

These are about the only bouts in sight on short notice, and neither of these is certain. Godfrey is on his way to the Coast after a trip to New York where he testified before the Boxing Commission that Jimmy Dougherty is his legal manager.

RICHEY IS HANDED WIN OVER GRANDETTE

Joe Ritchey, Los Angeles bantam, was given an unpopular decision over Frankie Grandette, the Hollywood shelm, in the eight-round main event at the Pasadena Armory last night. The majority of those at ringside thought that Grandette clearly won the verdict.

In the semi-wind-up George Lawie, speedy 130-pounder, won over Mackey McMullen after six rounds of battling. The other bouts resulted as follows: Billy Atkins knocked out George Ortega in three seconds; Roberto Roberts and Ed Eades went four rounds to a draw; Gerald Holman stopped Pat Lopez in the second, and Strother Phillips put Willis Durham to sleep in the second round of the openers.

SUGGS SLUGS WAY TO WIN OVER SARMIENTO IN GARDEN

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—Chick Suggs, 121-1-4, got the decision over Pete Sarmiento of the Philippines, 122, at the end of ten grueling rounds of the main event at the new garden tonight before 11,000 fans.

It was a one-sided affair for the first four rounds, Suggs battering the willing brown boy about freely and did not seem Pete would last the distance.

But Sarmiento turned in a real rally in the fifth and outlasted the negro, who appeared to slow down from the fast pace he set in the earlier rounds. However, Suggs hit Sarmiento with every punch in the list, but the game little Filipino weathered everything and was there at the final bell, fighting as hard as ever, although he had taken a sound lacing. Jack Dorman refereed.

Bushy Graham, 118½, of Utica, scored a technical knockout over Dominick Petrone, 120½, early in the eighth round of their scheduled ten-round bout, when Petrone, who had a slight lead when Referee Dorman stopped the bout at the request of Petrone, who could not continue.

Vic Burrone, 122½, gave the cheery Carl Tremaine of Cleveland, 124, a nice licking in a ten-round bout. Tremaine started off to clean up, but Burrone soon took the play from him and never let the Clevelander get out in front for long.

OBSERVATIONS

BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER BILL HENRY

THEY can say what they like about Jack Dempsey as a man, as a movie actor, as a champion or from any other angle, but they can never say that he hasn't been an interesting fighter to watch. Any time Jack Dempsey puts on a pair of gloves and crawls into a ring you can bet a small sum of money that there will be action and lots of it. You'll never see any such exhibitions of back-pedaling as have been shown here recently by title-holders—the most recent and most horrible example of which was furnished by Tod Morgan—when Dempsey is involved. The inane savagery and killer instinct that has possessed Dempsey since the first day he drew on a glove, makes him a very interesting fighter to watch.

Our suspicion about Mr. Tunney is that he isn't quite as dramatic as the champion himself. That's of very little importance as long as the other person in the arena happens to be Jack Dempsey. Jack will always supply plenty of action quite regardless of what his opponent's ideas on the subject may be. Tunney's chances of victory in the forthcoming fracas depend entirely on his ability to get past the first two or three rounds. If he can survive the first fury of the Dempsey attack he has a good chance to win.

We note that all the boys are touting the U.S.C. Trojans as the favorite for the Coast title. They point out that Stanford has lost Nevers and Mitchell; Washington has lost Tereau and Wilson; and California has lost Dixon, Carlson and Imlay, while the local team, as far as regulars go, has lost only Cook and he wasn't used as much as Kaer or Elliott. This is the first time in a long while that the Trojans have been admitted favorite in any place except in the home-town community.

While all these choices are being made on the basis of veterans, our guess is that Cupid Fox at guard, Hibbs at tackle, and Williams in the backfield, all former freshman stars, will probably be the outstanding players on the local team aside from Cravath and Drury.

There will be a lot of genuine feeling when Helen Willis and Bunny Ryan tangle in an eastern tournament today. They have met only once and Miss Ryan won in straight sets when Miss Willis was supposed to be at her best, but when the courts were sloppy with rain. It is a cinch that Helen Willis would like nothing better than to beat Bunny, while the latter certainly reciprocates.

RAILROAD PLANS FREE RIDE
Baltimore and Ohio Will Inaugurate Motor Bus Service to and from Trains; Public Coddled

BY EARLE E. CROWE

In this era of high-priced competition in business it is becoming the usual thing for the large enterprises to adopt almost any measure that will bring whatever they have to sell to the very door of the customer. They establish neighborhood stores and theaters and they send armored cars around to collect bank deposits. Some of the large eastern department stores even have experimented with running motor busses from the outlying districts to their downtown stores.

It remains, however, for the steam railroads to devise the latest refinement in the art of coddling the public. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has just announced a train-side motor-coach service to and from the heart of New York City that will be placed in operation about the last of this month. Passengers for the Baltimore and Ohio trains will be picked up by the motor coaches in the business, shopping, hotel and theater districts of New York, taken from the trains to any point along the routes in these districts.

PRECEDENT SET

Of course, this is only an experiment, but it clearly indicates a trend. The Baltimore and Ohio is the first of the railroads to co-ordinate a free motor service for passengers with the steam lines, and is setting an important precedent in rail transportation. The large passenger systems have vied with each other in the inauguration of expensive and luxurious facilities for the convenience of passengers while on the trains, and have undertaken extensive advertising campaigns to carry the message of these advantages to the public. They have provided such refinements as the club car, train secretary, waiter, barber, maid, manicure and shower baths, and have astoundingly proclaimed the delights of the scenery along their routes. Everything has been done to urge the traveler to come down to the railroad station and take the train, and now the Baltimore and Ohio will not only take the travelers to the station, but will take them from the station to the central points in the downtown districts.

If this experiment proves successful, it undoubtedly will open an entirely new field for the co-ordinated development of the automobile and the railroad. The Baltimore and Ohio has taken a tremendous toll from the passenger business of the railroads. Mostly it is in the short-haul business that the invasion has been heaviest, as, for example, in the case of the commuters to the large cities who take the train to the city and then take the automobile or the motor stages to their downtown offices or stores more quickly than the fast local trains. Evidently the train-side motor-coach service of the Baltimore and Ohio is planned to overcome the delay in the congested districts in going to and coming from the trains.

DELAY ELIMINATED

To excel the advantages of the privately operated automobiles and motor stages, the Baltimore and Ohio has arranged to have the passengers in the motor coaches pass directly into the trains without bothering with the delay of passing through gates, waiting to have tickets punched, or worrying about missing trains. Hand baggage will be taken care of by the coach attendant. No extra charge will be made for riding in the motor coaches.

Naturally the inauguration of this service will add heavily to the cost of operating passenger service, but the statistics plainly show that the railroads must take radical steps to arrest the decline in passenger traffic. It has been necessary to substantially increase passenger facilities, the number of trains in service having increased 15 per cent between 1911 and 1925, while at the same time the volume of traffic has fallen off. In both 1924 and 1925, for example, the number of passengers carried by the railroads was less than in 1921.

Whether the train-side motor-coach service will be utilized outside of New York is conjectural, but it may prove feasible, but there is little possibility that it will arise in the cities where competition between the railroads themselves is unimportant.

MERGER OF OIL FIRMS TAKES FORM
California Eastern Gets Delaware Charter, Julian Executive Declares

Articles of incorporation have been filed and a charter granted by the state of Delaware to the California Eastern Oil Company, formed through the consolidation of Julian Petroleum Corporation, the Marine Petroleum Corporation and other western properties, according to a statement made in San Francisco yesterday by J. C. Lewis, president of the Julian company.

The new company will have a capitalization of 5,000,000 shares of no par value stock.

It was reported in Los Angeles yesterday that a middle-western subsidiary of the Tide Water Associated Oil Company would be included in the consolidation. Mr. Lewis refused to comment on this angle, stating that an official announcement of the merger, giving all details of exchange and other matters, would be made by all companies interested in their stockholders later in the week.

Julian Petroleum Corporation owns about 800,000 shares of stock in the Marine Petroleum, which is understood, will be converted into stock of the California Eastern Oil Company.

ANOMALY IN TRADE CYCLE
Steady Decline of Commodity Price Curve in Face of Great Prosperity Unusually Interesting

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

(Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—Wholesale commodity prices have been declining for eight consecutive months, according to the Bradstreet and Dun compilations, until the general average now stands at the lowest level in two years.

That the country should have falling prices in its period of greatest prosperity in recent years is the extraordinary interesting phase of the present business cycle. Usually the movement of commodity prices reflects fairly closely the condition of trade; a rising trend in commodities ordinarily accompanies prosperity and a downward trend depression. The rule does not work for 1926, or we would be compelled to conclude from the fact that commodities have moved a little lower each month this year to date, that the times are distinctly good times everybody knows is the stamp that marks the business flow of the period.

Few are the individual dealers that will express satisfaction over a falling commodity movement since profits for them are swollen by the reduction to their calculated gains since price of purchase, of course, the merchant can widen his margin of profit somewhat by stiffening his own charges to prospective customers. That is why industry almost always prefers rising to falling prices and why such periods usually bring prosperity, whereas it takes close figuring to prosper when the commodity trend is unfavorable.

But the adjustment in the commodity position has greatly helped the general state of trade by its aid in reducing somewhat the cost of living and in restoring a degree of stability to prices that had not been achieved since the outbreak of war.

That prices for so long have been receding at a time when the demand for goods is abnormally large, very plainly suggests that supply is greater than the demand. Some commentators draw the conclusion that inventories in dangerous amounts are being accumulated. No to the contrary, however, that production has so far outstripped consumption that industry faces any serious period of readjustment. As a matter of fact the distinguishing feature of the present business period has been that stock of goods in the hands of distributors has been held down to modest levels. Under the present system of hand-to-mouth ordering the manufacturers, rather than the distributor, is the one that will suffer most if and when inventories are allowed to become excessive.

STOCK MARKET DRIFTS LOWER
Reaction Held Correction of Oversold Condition

Activity of Case Threshing Leads Few Favorites

Revival in Copper Group is Feature of Trading

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (AP)—Stock prices drifted lower today as the market resumed the correction of the weakened technical position resulting from the recent rally and sustained advance in many issues. While some bear selling and profit-taking undoubtedly was inspired by the marking up of the call money rate from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent, the reaction was not generally associated with anything in the day's news which, in the main, was again favorable. Trading showed a market falling off in volume, the day's sales aggregating 1,725,000 shares, as compared with 2,515,000 yesterday, and 2,715,000 the day before.

Despite the reactionary trend in the general list, active bidding continued for a few selected specialties. Case Threshing Machine was the individual feature, scoring an extreme gain of 22 points by touching a new high record of 169, as compared with a low of 62 1/2 earlier in the year. Wall street expects a stock split-up on Case before the end of the year. Remington Typewriter also showed outstanding strength, jumping over 6 points to 119 3/4.

MOTOR ISSUES OFF

Trading in General Motors continued in enormous volume, but the range of fluctuation narrowed down to less than 6 points, the closing price of 204 1/2 representing a net loss of 2 points. Both buying and selling were cautious, the final quotation with brokers reporting the widespread utilization of close stops. United States Steel common received better buying support, the final quotation of 150 representing only a fractional loss.

Revival of activity in the copper shares, based on the recent stiffening of red metal prices, was one of the most interesting incidents of the day's trading. New prices for the year, or longer, were attained by Anaconda and Cerro de Pasco, while Kennecott duplicated its 1926 top and most of the others advanced to within striking distances of their peak prices. Oils, as a group, were slow in responding to the excellent semi-annual earnings reports now being published, although special strength (Continued on Page 16, Column 1)

No values of consequence have been found in the crosscut, and the west end of the shaft, the territory that has been explored.

JUGO-SLAVIA NOW IN SOUND POSITION
LAW ENACTED TO PROVIDE SYSTEM OF CREDITS FOR AGRICULTURE

The economic position of Jugoslavia during 1925 continued sound, benefited by the agreement among political parties and the consequent formation of a coalition government, according to the United States Department of Commerce report of July 26, last.

Dinar exchange improved greatly, at one point so rapidly that the government was obliged to intervene to avoid injurious consequences. State revenues continued to exceed budget estimates. For the first time since 1922 there was distinct relief from credit stringency, with a reduction in interest and discount rates.

Among the outstanding economic measures of the year was the passage of a law establishing a new system of credits for agriculture. It is stated that the plan was worked out by age but that depression prevailed in the lumber industry. Foreign trade as a whole expanded and showed a small favorable trade balance.

Berlin Editor Hits American Zinc Control
BERLIN, Aug. 5. (AP)—The Morgenpost says America's control of the world production of zinc is already responsible for an increase of 50 per cent over the prewar price levels for this metal.

The paper asserts that, with the acquisition of the Von Gleschke mines by the Harriman-Anaconda interests, German industry, which is one of the world's heaviest consumers of zinc, now is at the mercy of a foreign monopoly, as was already the case in copper.

The prewar price of zinc in New York was slightly over 5 cents a pound, whereas it is now quoted at 7 1/2 cents.

(Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

LONDON, Aug. 5. (By wire)—The markets were quietly firm today, but French securities were easier on the reaction of the franc to 175. It is considered that the rise has gone too rapidly.

Rubbers are inclined to improve. Mining Lane is endeavoring to discover whether the Colonial Office has any fixed policy for arranging the cut in the December quarter if the price falls below a certain level. Meanwhile the commodity is weak on the withdrawal of American support.

Markets were quietly hardening at the closing. Home rails also were better while among the mining shares were buoyant. Currency was up $3.067,000, now standing at $25,594,000. Amsterdam was quoted 1211 1/4. Stockholm 18 1/2. The Bank of France return shows an increase of 400 million francs advances to State and 1,200,000 francs increase in note circulation.

BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY
BY WILLIAM FEATHER

VOLUNTARY ignorance is as great a crime as voluntary idleness. A misconception of what education is and how it is obtained keeps many in ignorance. Among the ignorant the view is general that an education can be obtained only in schools and from teachers. The fact is that any education we obtain is the result of our own individual efforts. The school and teacher function merely as guides and disciplinarians. But the man who really wants an education does not need a disciplinarian, and his own natural common sense will guide him to choose the proper means to the end.

Home for Vacation
Miss Virginia Rhodes, who was graduated from Westlake School for Girls and who has been attending Smith College for the past two years, returned home several weeks ago to pass the summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Rhodes.

Things might have gone along indefinitely in the Stokes family if they only had lived at the beach. But they didn't, so yesterday Mrs. Marion Stokes in Judge Holler's court seeking a divorce from Stanley Archer Stokes.

"During our whole married life he bought me just one bathing suit, one pair of stockings and nothing else," Mrs. Stokes complained. "The time came eventually when my trousseau circumstances and that her husband's band was concerned, I was practically without clothes."

"I can readily see," conceded Judge Holler, "that one bathing suit and one pair of stockings would be a very small thing for a woman to expect. But the fact is, you are asking for a divorce on the ground that your husband refused to supply further raiment constitutes substantial failure to provide the necessities of life, as contemplated by the code of civil procedure. Therefore I find that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce."

RIPE OLIVE OMELET
Drain one small bottle of ripe olives, add to them the whites of two cold boiled eggs diced and a tablespoonful of chutney syrup. Make a five-egg omelet, mix the olive mixture warmed in a tiny saucepan, but not cooked, turn into the omelet and fold as usual. Turn on a hot dish, and garnish with a few sprays of carefully washed fresh mint dusted with powdered sugar.

TANSY SALAD
Take a half jar of "Punchesey," put it in a white enamel strainer to drain until needed, prepare a grapefruit as for salad, and turn a wine-glass of apricot cordial over it, with a tablespoonful of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of powdered sugar. When ready to dress the salad drain the juice from the fruit, mix the grapefruit and Punchesey, and all white lettuce leaves with the mixture, cover with mayonnaise without mustard, to which some finely chopped English walnuts have been added. Serve at once, so that the fruit juice may not thin the salad dressing.

PURÉE OF WATERCRESS
Boil four bunches of watercress in half, peel, and remove their stones. Cook the halves carefully in a pint of water. When done, drain and place them on a wire sieve to cool. Boil a quarter pint of milk and add to it the well-beaten yolks of two eggs and when all is melted strain into a bowl and set away to cool. Whip one-half pint of heavy cream and add to the mixture, cover it with one-half of the whipped cream. Dice a slice of preserved pineapple and cut a few candied cherries and place them on top. Arrange the peaches on top, leaving a space in the center in which to pile the remainder of the whipped cream. (All rights in recipe reserved by A. L. Wyman)

CAFE NOTES
Carolyn Snowden, cafe entertainer, is heading a new show at Frank Sebastian's Cotton Club Cafe on Washington Boulevard, and those who remember the previous appearances of the "Bronze Sophie Tucker" will find her new songs and dancing steps a revelation.

Miss Snowden, who has just completed a part in a forthcoming motion picture production, will be aided by her own Creole chorus, while additional entertainment will be furnished by Frisco Nick, Strut Mitchell, Ivy Anderson and Pauline, who will later pair making their first appearance at this cafe.

Frank Sebastian, manager of the Cotton Club and the Venice Cafe on Winward avenue, Venice, who recently returned from San Francisco, announces he will soon have a new New York in search of new talent for his cafe, this being in line with his policy to obtain only the best for his patrons.

The Montmartre Cafe in Hollywood will honor the creators of screen dramas this evening when scenario writers' night will be celebrated. Charlie Merriam, who will be the guest of honor. One of the features of the evening's entertainment will be the singing of the "Merriman" by the winning couple of which will receive a silver loving cup or so at a time, has been known to the dancing contest and award the prize.

Eddie Brandstetter, owner of the cafe, and a most talented dancer, will be the featured attraction for the evening. Moore will act as master of ceremonies.

The regular week-end fashion show and musical entertainment will take place Saturday, with the film "The Frolic" scheduled for Saturday evening.

Gino De Verdi and his Russian orchestra will give a special program of classical music Sunday evening.

Aspirants for dancing-contest prizes will surely be given an interesting "do their stuff" at the college-night entertainments featured at the Plantation Cafe every Friday night.

Dave Wolf, host of the cafe, announces that a Winslow B. Felix Chevrolet roadster will be awarded the winner of the final dancing contest, in which winners of the individual Friday-night contests will be participants.

An exquisite French doll, the creation of Mme. Elizabeth, will be given the winner of tonight's dancing contest.

Harry Vernon, whose clever song hits have occasioned packed houses at the Plantation, is still "running wild" and he will have some special numbers for college night.

Music, dancing and entertainment are the nightly program at the Mm. Zucco Inn at 610 North Spring street. Those who have never experienced the pleasant memories left by a visit to this cafe will find that the service and personal attention furnished by the staff, Zucco leave nothing to be desired.

KIDNIE CARS AND SCOOTERS
Mrs. E. Kiddie cars, unless the distance from the seat to the ground is correct for the individual child, may become injurious and cause knock knee and flat foot. If the child uses one much and begins to wear out his shoes on the inner borders, it shows that the car is not placed right for him.

COD LIVER OIL AND SUNSHINE
Mrs. L.: Yes, there is an active principle in cod liver oil which, combined with correct diet and sunshine, will prevent and help cure rickets. It is used to be thought that this curative and preventive principle was not vitamin D, but it is now believed that there is a distinct antirachitic vitamin which is present in a high degree in cod liver oil and is called vitamin D.

You should see your physician about the correct dosage for your baby (and also have the changes in his formula advised).

There are some children specialists who believe that cod liver oil is necessary for normal babies as is orange juice, and they prescribe it regularly for each baby.

The lack of sunshine as well as the wrong diet is one of the causes of rickets, and it is found that the disease is much more frequent in certain parts of the world—as in England, for instance, where the sunshine is relatively infrequent—and following the winter months there are more cases. Exposure to the sun (this also should be prescribed by the physician), by bathing with a few minutes and increasing to a half hour at a time, has been known to cure the disease. Artificial sunlight is sometimes even more effective.

DR. DOUGLAS TO ASSUME PASTORATE
Preacher in Ohio Will be Successor of Dr. Patton for Congregationalists

Rev. Dr. Lloyd C. Douglas, who succeeded Rev. Dr. Carl S. Patton as pastor of the First Congregational Church at Akron, Ohio, in 1913, also will be Dr. Patton's successor as pastor of the First Congregational Church in Los Angeles, according to arrangements announced yesterday by officials of the local church.

At a business meeting conducted yesterday by officials of the First Congregational Church it was decided to invite Dr. Douglas, now pastor of the First Congregational Church at Akron, O., to succeed Dr. Patton, who has accepted a call to the chair of preaching and church work at the Chicago Theological Seminary. Dr. Patton, who has been with the local church nine years, will leave Los Angeles following his farewell sermon on September 12, next.

James Wallace, educational and executive secretary of the First Congregational Church here, said that Dr. Douglas, who preached in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, promised to accept the call to the local church if tendered him by the congregation. All that is required is his formal registration from the Akron parish and his acceptance by his church board. Dr. Douglas will receive a salary of $12,000 annually from the local church. He is expected to arrive in Los Angeles about November 1.

Born at Columbus, Ind., in 1877, Dr. Douglas was graduated from Western University at Springfield, O., in 1900, taking his master's degree at that college in 1904. He received the degree of doctor of divinity at Farg College in 1920. He was pastor of the Lutheran Memorial at Washington, D. C., from 1910 to 1911 and for five years was director of religious work of the University of Illinois. From 1915 to 1921 he was in charge of the Congregational Church at Ann Arbor, Mich., since that time has been at Akron. In 1917 he was director of publicity in colleges and universities for the United States government. Dr. Douglas is the author of several books and is a chautauqua lecturer.

YOUTH STABBED IN ATTACK CASE
Father of Girl Uses Knife in Pasadena Affray Suspect Injured Soon After Appearing in Court Murder Attempt Charge Now Faced by Parent

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, Aug. 5.—Shortly after leaving Justice Court here this afternoon, where he faced trial on a charge of attacking Vida Herren, 16 years of age, Clyde Sanders was stabbed in the abdomen with a pocket knife wielded by Lee Heren, father of the girl, according to the police. Heren was arrested a few minutes later in a pool hall at Colorado street and Allen avenue, near the scene of the alleged stabbing, and was placed in the City Jail on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. Arraigned before Justice Gibbs, his bail was set at $2000.

Sanders, who is 19, was rushed to the Emergency Hospital by a passerby, E. W. Hinckley, and after receiving treatment by Dr. C. C. Troensegaard was able to go home. Justice Gibbs earlier in the day held Sanders to answer to the Superior Court on the attack charge after a preliminary hearing in which the Herren girl testified as to their relations. The youth, who lives at 2535 Nina street in the same neighborhood as the Herrens, was released on $500 bail.

The father is said to have met him soon afterward and to have stabbed Sanders after an altercation. Heren is 38 and lives at 178 Cook street.

PAIR PAY DEARLY FOR ENDEARING REMARKS
Audrey Jeffway

An occasional smart crack can be passed over, Miss Audrey Jeffway of 707 South Mathews street, yesterday told Municipal Judge Pope, but when one is under a barrage of them for six weeks, it's time to complain.

Miss Jeffway, who is 17 years of age, came into court to appear against Paul Peterson and Jim Morrison of 720 South Mathews street, declaring they shouted at her from across the street every night when she came home such remarks as "Hello, dearie" and "Where you going, sweetheart?" She caused their arrest by Officer Morris, she said, and charged them with disturbing the peace.

Judge Pope found them guilty and fined them $100 each, which they paid. The case was prosecuted by Deputy City Prosecutor Gilbert.

Better Bread cannot be made Bread so good is seldom baked

... It is not possible to make better bread than Jevne's Butterloaf. Only when the very best ingredients are used, regardless of cost, can such incomparable bread be baked.

... Jevne's set out to make the best bread possible to bake. Ordinary shortening was not good enough for this delicious loaf. Pure creamery butter was the only shortening used.

... This, together with the very particular and careful selection of all other ingredients, accounts for the wonderful flavor such as you have never tasted in bread before. No wonder everyone says: "There is no better bread."

MOTHER FREED IN FATAL BLAST

Exonerated of Boys' Deaths in Still Explosion

Held, However, for Trial on Wright-Act Charges

Police Hunt Man Said to Have Owned Plant

Mrs. Mildred Minchilla, mother of Sam Minchilla, 18 years of age, who, with Joe Borgono, 18 years of age, of 1728 West Eighth Place, was burned to death Tuesday morning when a still exploded in the Minchilla home at 759 Castellar street, was yesterday exonerated from blame
by a coroner's jury.

The jury, sitting at the inquest into the deaths of the boys, returned a verdict to the effect that the boys came to their deaths through their own carelessness.

Mrs. Minchilla was arrested soon after the fire, subsequent to the explosion, destroyed the house, and was held by the police on suspicion of manslaughter. This charge was dropped yesterday by Detective-Lieutenant Hickey and Condafer. She is being held, however, on violation of the Wright-Act charges.

The boys were trapped in a second-floor room of the house when the explosion occurred. Flames so quickly consumed the dwelling that the mother, who was in the lower part of the house, was able only to save a few personal belongings before fleeing to the street.

An investigation following the fire disclosed, according to the police report, that the dwelling had contained, besides the still, more than 100 barrels of mash and other apparatus for the manufacture of illicit liquor.

Mrs. Minchilla asserts the plant was owned by a man who hired her son to watch it. Police are continuing their investigation of the case in order to establish the exact ownership of the plant.

NIGHT BLOOMER SETS RECORD

Cereus Has Nine Blossoms in Year

Southland Climate Gets Credit

Mrs. A. Reese displaying flower in the home of B. A. Brooks, its owner.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA'S ideal climate has proved a boon to the life of a night-blooming cereus plant transplanted to the Southland from Wisconsin, in the opinion of its owner, B. A. Brooks, 5013 South Main street.

Mr. Brooks is the possessor of a cereus plant that is breaking all records, in his experience with plant life, in the unusually large number of blossoms over a period of a year.
While the ordinary cereus plant has but one blossom annually, the one owned by Brooks already has had seven this season and two more are budding, making a total of nine.
Rarely are there two blossoms a year, he declared, but this plant has done the unusual several times, having had five blossoms about three years ago.

The plant, about four feet in height, is 25 years of age. It was brought to Los Angeles fourteen

DOCTOR USES PLANE FOR COUNTRY CALLS

Building up an out-of-town medical practice through the use of the airplane is something for physicians of the future to consider, Dr. H. H.
Costenbader of 609 South Burlington street declared yesterday following his return through the air from attendance on patients in San Jacinto and Hemet. Dr. Costenbader, who himself is a licensed air pilot, chartered one of the planes of the Aero Corporation of California when he received telephone calls that he was needed by Miss A. M. Hogue in San Jacinto and Mrs. Myrtle Cody in Hemet. With Pilot Jack Tye handling the "stick" the round trip of more than 200 miles was covered in two hours and thirty minutes.

DANCER ACCUSED AS KISSER DIVORCED

Mrs. Blanche Rusk was the kind of a girl who, at dances, would sit in dark corners and kiss her partners, Gerald E. Rusk told Judge Gates yesterday. Rusk is her husband, and he did not approve this conduct, so he asked for a divorce. "Furthermore, she asked for herself the money I gave her with which to meet the installments on her engagement ring," Rusk complained. "Next time you get married you'd better have the engagement ring paid for in advance," suggested Judge Gates. "Judge, there will be no next time," replied Rusk earnestly. "I have had plenty of married life. In fact I am thoroughly fed up with it." So Judge Gates gave him a decree.

BACK TO DIRECTING

Goading Again to Make M.-G.-M. Film; Clara Bow's
"Ex" in "The Blond Saint;" Kerr
With Preferred

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Whether biffing away on the typewriter, making up stories for the screen or telling the actors on a set how to put over their stuff, Edmund Goulding seems to be equally at home. So quite logically he alternates the two jobs.

Having kept his hand in by writing a few stories for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lately, now he is going back to directing, according to announcement last night from the M.-G.-M. studios.

And the picture he will direct will be one which he has just finished tapping out on his typewriter, written out of his own head. It is called "Shadow Lane," and is a modern domestic drama based on the jealous love of parents for their children.

Before entering pictures Goulding was a well-known British novelist, actor and playwright. Among his first screen work was the adapting of "Tolable David," after which he adapted "Pury," his own novel, to the screen. Since his affiliation with M.-G.-M., he wrote "Up," starring Conrad Nagel and Pauline Starke.
Since then he has written and directed "Paris," featuring Charles Ray and Joan Crawford.

Harold Lockwood's Son
Harold Lockwood, Jr., 16-year-old son of the film star, Harold Lockwood, who passed away during the flu epidemic which raged some nine years ago, has gone into pictures.

At present he is playing a small part in Colleen Moore's picture, "Twin-kletons," which Charles Brabin is directing for First National.

Gilbert Rowland in It Gilbert Rowland, who formerly had the good fortune to be engaged to Clara Bow, but whose romantic dreams were cut short when Bob-ert Savage burned into the name, is again going into pictures.

The young actor, who played an important part in
"The Plastic Age," has been engaged to play a leading juvenile role in Lewis Stone and Lewis Kenyon in "The Blond Saint,"
which First National is making.

Harry Kerr Signs
Preferred Pictures, an independent organization with headquarters at the Universal studios, announces from the offices of its president, J.
O. Bachmann, that Harry Kerr has been placed under contract to supervise all productions.

Kerr is known as one of the best executives in the film industry. During the past few years he has confined his activities mostly to the free-lance field.

Metropolitan Shows Adaption of Stage Play

Managing Director Frank L. Newman of the Metropolitan Theater, announces that for one week beginning today the attraction will be "The Show-Off," featuring Fred Sterling, Louis Willcox, Louise Brooks and Gregory Kelly. This is a Malcolm St-clair production, adapted from the stage play which ran for two years in New York.

In it Fred Sterling appears as the "show-off," the man who pretends to be what he is not. Sterling, as Aubrey Piper, a railroad clerk, is said to have full opportunity to display his comedy talents.

On the stage Eddie Peabody is seen in "Rays of Sunshine," a colorful Jack Partington production. Bell and Coates are at the Metropolitan for another week, as is Don Carroll.
Others are Harvey Karrels, dancer
Edith Griffith and the Metropolitan Girls.

Steel Picture
'Shot' in Mills

Through the courtesy of the United States Steel Corporation, scenes were filmed in the mills and iron mines of the organization.

To help make the scenes all the more realistic, R. L. Brown, superintendent of steel-making at the Englewood mills, furnished the "extras" from the ranks of his workers.

One of the workers, A. J. Smith, was given a "bit" while the others

Steel mill workers, whose only knowledge of motion pictures is gained by paying their admission price at the box-office and watching their favorite stars on the screen, were given a real thrill at the En-picture, "Men of Steel," which is now showing at Loew's State.

ALOMA OF SOUTH SEAS AND STAR IN PERSON

By Edwin Schallert

More or less glorified by the appearance of Gilda Gray in person, and with a good-sized turnout of Hollywood picture stars for the evening showing, "Aloma of the South Seas," starring the dancing celebrity who has made the hula famous, had its first presentation here yesterday at the Million Dollar Theater.

The local premiere of the combined attractions might be described as comparatively auspicious, although it was made so to a large degree in the evening by the debut of Wallace Beery as a master of ceremonies, and the reception accorded various stars, Jack Gilbert, particularly, it may be mentioned, received both applause and cheers when he was called to the stage by Wallie.

Percy Marmont, Raymond Hatton, Vera Gordon, George Bancroft, principally, and Jacqueline Logan, Virginia Valli and Julian Johnston were others who received special recognition, though at that I don't think that I have mentioned all of them.

Miss Gray herself won quite an ovation, when she was introduced as far as the combined entertainment in which she is featured goes, the picture is much more the thing than the very short stage number. This stage part of the show seemed to be scanty in more than a sartorial sense. It consisted of one very brief hula by Miss Gray—though it is possible that she may have profited more at the earlier performance.

The ensemble of Prince Lei Lani and his Royal Samoans is really the high spot, and Lani's war whoops are immensely amusing. The dancing has a great element of swing.

Miss Gray may have an interesting screen personality, though it would be difficult to settle this from this one feature. "Aloma of the South Seas" is the kind of picture that is fashioned right according to her requirements, but it is hardly probable that she will be able to go on starring in South Sea Island pictures forever.

Her eyes have quite a remarkable photographic value, and she seems to possess a certain talent for whimsical comedy. Grace of carriage is something naturally to be remarked in her instances. I found also something surprising—in view of the fact that "Aloma" is her first picture—that she seemed to show very little trace of self-consciousness. She appeared sufficiently magnetic also to interest the interest very countantly for herself, despite the new medium.

Percy Marmont, Warner Baxter, William Powell, Harry Morey and Julian Johnston are the other principals, the men of this group enjoying just about an equal division of the honors—whatever they may amount to. There isn't a single role that isn't patterned—the man trying to forget; the revengeful native youth; the hard-drinking beachcomber; the philandering husband; and the neglected wife. It's a pretty sorry assortment of characters to bring together.

Even though there are but a few brief glimpses of him, one could wish that such a good old troupier of a villain as Mr. Marmont might be seen on the screen oftener.

Some beautiful settings, secured as I recall it, in Florida and the Bahamas, are a credit undoubtedly, in part, to the fine pictorial perceptions of Maurice Tourneur, who was the director. In the respect of natural scenery "Aloma" is very beautifully enhanced.

The screen's novelty, "Curiosities," and "The Dance of the Hours" by Ponchielli, conducted by Bakelinkoff, were other items on the program.

Rehearse Jazz While on Train to Los Angeles

Many musicians of the city, representatives from the film colony, and a committee from the American Legion, of which he is a member, were at the station to welcome Zee Confrey, composer, pianist, and orchestra leader, when he arrived in Los Angeles yesterday.

As the great jazz artist and his orchestra, accompanied by Jack Crawford, saxophonist, stepped from their private car, in which they have made the trip from Chicago with two pianos rehearsing the leader's latest compositions which will feature their opening program here, they were snapped by numerous photographers and loaded into waiting automobiles.

Escorted by a squad of motorcycle officers and accompanied by the prominent men who welcomed them, Confrey and his aggregation were placed at the head of a parade which drove from the station to the Grand avenue ballroom of Fred H. Solomon, where he will open a limited engagement with a premiere tonight.

HURRY-UP YOST WILL COACH DIX GRIDDERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 5. (Exclusive)—Football Coach "Hurry-up" Yost has arrived at the Paramount Long Island last night, where he will begin playing the football material gathered in the last two months for Richard Dix's newest starring effort, "The Quarterback."

An imposing line-up of gridiron stars awaits the ministrations of the coach from the University of Michigan, who will guide them through two brands of the popular game—the kind played in 1899 for a prologue in the filmization of W. O. McGeehan's story, and the up-to-date 1926 model. Fred Jewett is directing "The Quarterback."

ONE-ACT PLAYS NEXT ON GARRET PROGRAM

Setting into a serious pace of production for fall, the Garret Club will offer for its next production three one-act sketches. Drama in all its realism will be seen in Sada Cowan's "In the Morgue." "On the Razor's Edge," an original from the pen of Rupert Hughes, is second. The third original has been contributed by Ralph Wheelwright.

"Julius Caesar" Coming—O'Neill's Latest Sid Seeks Troubadours

by HERBERT MOULTON

AFTER a year of public inactivity, the Hollywood Art Theater, which last season produced "Lillian," has taken a new lease on life and will offer a massive production of "Julius Caesar" in the Hollywood Bowl on September 17 and 18, according to announcement made last night by the organization's board of directors.

Since last year's production the art-Shawnee and Ralph Freud during the absence in Europe of the Pasadena group's producing director, Gilmore Brown.

Now that the premiere season is here, with the playhouses and picture theaters seemingly vying with each other for a day in the week on which to have a first night all to themselves, one should not overlook the opening of "Don Juan" at the Egyptian on the night of the 20th inst.

Sid Grauman is at present in the throes of another prologue, and if you happen to know of any Spanish troubadours or Italian stage entertainers he'll doubtless be glad to hear of them.

Sid plans to pervade his prologue to "Don Juan" with a much more dramatic atmosphere as he can possibly crowd into it.

He has already engaged Antonio Canino, internationally known as a castilian dancer, and his scouts are busily searching for others of similar talent.

Incidentally, this picture at the Egyptian will mark John Barrymore's first appearance on the screen at the Egyptian house.

He appears in one of those ultra-romantic roles that suit him so perfectly. Barrymore, who made such a splendid heroine for him in "Beat Brummel" several years ago, again appears opposite the star.

Eddie Lambert is said to be undergoing all the agonies of a broken heart.

Yesterday the comedian was advised that his over-sized shoes, of which he is so fond, had been ruled out of "Partners Again," in which Lambert plays the part of Potash.

And, so between now and Thursday night, when the show opens at the Orange Grove, Eddie is discommodately making the rounds of the booteries, looking for footwear that does not fill up half the stage.

Louis O. Macloon has engaged Lester Cole for his musical production, "Tip-Toe," which opens at the Mason on the 16th inst. Cole will be remembered for his work in "Little Nellie Kelly," one of Macloon's earlier productions.

Bernard MacDonald, the Scotch playwright and producer of "Lillian's Affairs," now playing in Chicago, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday with a suitcase full of new songs, sketches and sketches for Olsen and Johnson, the featured comedians in "Monkey Business," which Michael Corper will stage at the Majestic Wednesday night.

MacDonald, in conjunction with Lynn Cowan, wrote the sketches for the new show. It was he who prepared most of the sketches in Harry Carroll's "Pickings," presented here two years ago.

He will remain in town for the opening and will then go to New York to work with Florenz Ziegfeld on a new musical show.

NEW ANGLE TO ANCIENT YARN

Instead of Gatemann, This Time It's an Actor's Pet "Purp"

The old story about the studio gateman is outdone by the one related by George Siegmann.

Siegmann, who is portraying the role of a Russian general in "Hotel Imperial," has for the past two weeks disguised his facial features behind a huge beard and other hirsute adornments.

Yesterday after completing his work scheduled for the day, he decided to retain his make-up until he arrived home.

Out-Chaneying even Lon, the actor's pet canine was so successfully deceived by his master's make-up, that he failed to recognize his gentle demonstrations of welcome and as Siegmann petted the dog, the latter viciously snapped his hand, catching one of the stars between his teeth and tearing off the nail.

Siegmann is now fully convinced that he has succeeded in his make-up as one of the Czar's generals.

evidently harks right back to biblical times.

At least, Mae McAvoy, who portrays Esther in "Ben Hur" at the Biltmore, would have it that I've heard several criticisms of her performance lately, it being felt by some that she made a rather saccharine little gal who was probably the grandmother of all the sickly-sweet movie ingenues.

But to those acquainted with Gen. Lew Wallace's novel, there is no question but what the Esther delineated by Mae McAvoy is just what she was intended to be. The spirituality of the role demands demureness and reserve and, judging from the reception accorded Mae McAvoy at the Biltmore Monday night, her performance is one that she need have no qualms about.

AMERICAN SINGER ENTRANCES BOWL

Esther Dale Shares Honors With Popular Conductor; Fine Concert-List

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Van Hoogstraten and Esther Dale captivated the Bowl audience last night. The great theater of music was more than half-filled, which means that 10,000 or more attended the concert and vociferously applauded both the popular conductor and the new American soprano.

The reason for the approval which "big business men" bestow on William Van Hoogstraten is apparent. He is the efficiency expert of conductors. Never a wasted motion! Many of his motions cannot be seen at all, he moves so quickly. From the moment the stage door opens his decisive personality dominates the performance. He is always in command and the orchestra obeys him with the snap of a military band.

Opening with the lively agitation of Sibelius's "Finlandia" Mr. Van Hoogstraten did not allow the break energy of his mood to subside until he began the beautifully smooth accompaniment to Esther Dale's Mozart aria, "L'Amore, Sero Costante," from "Le Pastore."

Miss Dale established herself in the minds of all listeners as a singer with a voice of lovely timbre and the mental equipment necessary to make an artist of the first rank. Her intelligence in choosing this aria far out over the Bowlin and every beautiful roulade rang out with clarity.

Her top notes were easily taken and never held beyond the limits of good taste or Mozart's intentions. Her simplicity and gracefulness of manner was the highest all composers in the audience. Her colorful gown of red and white and her flowing draperies added to the pleasure she gave.

Responding to encores, Miss Dale sang the "Dutch Grenadier," arranged by Conrad Bos, and "The Song of the Lovers." Her friends showered her with flowers and she was recalled again and again. Her program number was Gounod's "Plus grand Dans Son Obscurite," from "Faust." "Queen of Sheba," a number that might enter him in "Beat Brummel" and unworthy had it not been so well sung.

"Vienna Woods" played by Van Hoogstraten fascinated the audience. They were played with a delightful verve, which softened into just the right mood of sentiment at the proper moments.

Although the Brahms Symphony No. 1 was listed as the last offering of the orchestra it was changed to Beethoven's "Eroica." This composer ranks the highest all composers in the mind of Mr. Van Hoogstraten. He displayed his reverence in the impressive Funeral March which forms the second movement. In the first, Allegro, this attitude was not so easily discernible. It was much less effective. The scherzo was a brilliant, clever manipulation of orchestral sounds under his baton.

Tonight Mr. Van Hoogstraten will conduct the orchestra in a finished symphony by the gifted young Los Angeles composer Roy Harris. It had its first public hearing after its triumph at Rochester, N. Y., by Howard Hanson, two weeks ago at the New York Stadium under Van Hoogstraten.

Harris describes the work as an "experiment in form development." It is comparatively conservative and the New York critics have pronounced it a "serious" success, showing skill and marked talent.

Harris is leaving the 21st inst. from New York for further work in Paris. He is now at the MacDowell Colony.

Negotiations Completed for Harbor Building

LONG BEACH, Aug. 5.—Another wide forward in the development of the industrial side of Long Beach was seen here today in the announcement that the Pacific Molasses Products Company, organized in Philadelphia, has completed negotiations for a lease on a four-story plant in the Long Beach harbor district. Preparation are already under way, it was said, for the manufacture by the company of poultry and cattle feed on an extensive scale.

J. H. Robinson, president of the company, has closed a deal for a lease from E. H. Jones, 344 Lindero avenue, for the big brick structure at Mitchell avenue and Ocean boulevard, west of the city bridge. The building contains 80,000 feet of floor space, according to Charles Bland, industrial secretary of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Alterations within the building are already under way and these will cost several thousand dollars, it is claimed. The remodeling work will be in the neighborhood of $10,000 and will be completed in about ten days, it is claimed. The building has a frontage on Ocean boulevard of 139 feet and 117 feet on Mitchell avenue. It was constructed two years ago by Mr. Jones for industrial purposes. Blackstrap molasses, one of the major ingredients of the poultry and cattle feeds which the company expects to produce, will be imported direct from the West Indies to Long Beach harbor. Other products, such as sugar, are now in New Orleans, negotiating for a supply of the molasses from the West Indies. Later on it is expected that the supply of the product will be obtained from the Hawaiian Islands.

A market for the finished products will be established throughout Arizona, New Mexico, Western Texas and Southern California. Mr. Robinson, now in Southern California, is engaged in preparing the newly acquired plant for operation, was formerly engaged in similar enterprises in the East, with headquarters in New York. The number of employees that the new plant will require has not been definitely determined, it was said.

Damage Asked in Suit Against School District

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 5.—Negligence on the part of the Thermal school district trustees in operating their school bus is charged in two suits aggregating $25,000 filed today by Thomas W. Abernathy, through his guardian, T. A. Abernathy. Defendant in the suits are the school district and the trustees, Richard E. Brown, Robert Freeman and S. C. McPeckers.

Overcrowded conditions on the bus and lack of protection caused young Abernathy, 12 years of age, to fall beneath the wheels, the complaint relates. He was asserted to have been badly shaken up and to have received injuries to his leg which will make him permanently lame.

The accident occurred on January 8, last, when the bus was on its way to the Thermal Grammar school.

In the first suit, $25,000 for personal injuries is asked, while the second requests judgment for $10,000 to defray doctor's bills and other medical care. Brown and Whitcomb of Banning are attorneys for the plaintiff.

MISSING BOY OF DINUBA LOCATED

DINUBA, Aug. 5.—Clifton Ward, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Ward, who had been missing for several days, was found yesterday walking north on the railroad across the river north of here. He was first seen by a brother-in-law, who recognized him from a description given in a local paper. The boy, the eldest of four children, suffered an attack of pneumonia, probably about two months ago and was advised to remain at the home of his grandparents for a time. He often returned to the home and was seen after dark, and no alarm was felt for his safety until several hours after his disappearance. The boy's hearing is not good, and he has a defect in his speech, and when found could give no coherent account of his wanderings, although apparently suffering from neither exposure nor hunger.

OCEAN PARK STREET SOON TO BE OPENED

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 5.—Opening of Pier avenue in Ocean Park to Washington avenue will start immediately, according to John A. Morton, Santa Monica Commissioner of Public Works, following acceptance of deeds to four lots on Main street and Washington boulevard, together with fourteen-foot strips of other frontage given to the city by the Santa Monica Elks. The deeds were given by Ammann. The donors own property on the affected street, and the new $500,000 Elks' home will rise on a block fronting Pier avenue.

The street opening is regarded as important by city officials and business men, due to the rapid development of this section of Ocean Park as one of the bay district's main business districts.

HUNTINGTON CLERK RESIGNS
MAYWOOD, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Lena A. Carpenter, who has been clerk in charge of the branch of the Huntington Park Postoffice here for the past fifteen months, recently tendered her resignation, and Mr. Prigmore has been appointed, taking charge of the office yesterday.

RABBITS FAIL AS LOOKOUTS; STILL FOUND UNDER HUTCH

ARCADIA, Aug. 5.—Rivalling the Arabian Nights Tales the most cleverly concealed still in local police history was uncovered here last night in a cavern beneath a rabbit hutch. Four men and a complete still plant were seized by the raiding officers.

The raid was made at an isolated residence near Santa Anita Wash in the southeast part of Arcadia. No trace of liquor was found until the odor of mash was detected apparently emanating from a rabbit hutch which was 12x7 feet in size with a cement floor. The odor was noticeable only at certain places. Chancing to move a bale of hay one officer detected a stronger smell and went to work on the cement floor with a chisel, soon to reveal a cleverly camouflaged trap door into a subterranean cavern 7 feet deep, 8 feet wide, and 22 feet long.

Within this cave the officers seized a forty-gallon still, 500 gallons of assorted liquor, fourteen barrels of mash, still, supplies of corn, sugar, bran and other ingredients.

The still plant extended out under a garden which was covered with a heavy stand of alfalfa, concealing all vents penetrating to the underground plant. The waste from the still was carried away through pipes that led to the wash and emptied into a large cesspool. A profuse growth of morning-glories effectively covered the C. Picou.

Four men arrested on the premises gave their names as G. Picou, A. Racin, L. Quintana and Manuel Pando. The raid was made by Police Chief Goherty and Officer Grady Pardue, of Arcadia; Capt. Jim Benton and two dry squads from the Sheriff's office, and Constable James Quigley, of Monrovia.

Various Contests Arranged This Year in Which All Hawkies Urged to Take Part

LONG BEACH, Aug. 5.—Plans are about completed for the annual summer outing and picnic of the Ohio State Society, to be held in Bixby Park on Saturday. Several thousand former residents of the Buckeye State, now living or visiting in Southern California, are expected to attend the big event. More than fifty members of the Long Beach Ohio Society have been named to committees to prepare for the big outing and picnic.

Community singing, addresses by prominent Ohioans and the awarding of various prizes will constitute the afternoon program. Prizes will be provided for the largest family present, the oldest woman, the oldest man, the youngest child, the latest arrival from Ohio, the tallest boy under 14 years of age, and the tallest young man under 21.

The annual midsummer gathering of former Ohioans, perhaps the biggest event of its kind in Southern California each year, is scheduled for Bixby Park Saturday, the 14th inst.

The picnic is being made to break all previous attendance records for this particular event. Among the speakers this year will be Frank F. Merriam, of Long Beach, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor.

The cotton was grown on the N. J. Skinner ranch near Strathmore and was ready for ginning almost a month earlier than the first bale ginned here last year. Car Allocation Plan Approved by Vineyardists

ONTARIO, Aug. 5.—At a meeting held here this afternoon in the Euclid Theater, attended by some 500 vineyardists, shippers, railway officials, bankers and others interested in the economic grape industry of this district, approval was given after some discussion, of the American Railway Association's refrigerator car allocation plan which becomes effective the 10th inst.

The new plan was explained in detail by George C. Randall of Coolidge, who impressed on the growers and shippers the necessity for filling car requirements for each week ten days prior to the time wanted. Those requisitions, he said, must be filed with Ralph L. Cason, joint railroad representative, who will establish offices in the Euclid Finance Building here, in order to obtain any cars for grape shipment, as rolling stock will positively not be allotted in any other manner this season.

He also impressed upon shippers that this year for the first time, the proper bonds, issued by surety or bonding companies, covering grape shipments, must be filed with the railroad representative, who will establish offices in the Euclid Finance Building here, in order to obtain any cars for grape shipment, as rolling stock will positively not be allotted in any other manner this season.

Registration of Fresno Voters Breaks Record

FRESNO, Aug. 5.—All records for voter registration in Fresno county are broken this year, with a total of 48,151 registered for the August primary election. It was announced today by Registrar Prior. The previous record was 44,947, which was registered for the August primary election of 1924. Registration lagged during the early months of the year, but the period closed with a last-minute rush which swamped Prior's office to such an extent that it was not until today that checking of the returns was completed.

The party segregation of voters showed Republicans leading by almost two to one with a total of 28,227, while the drive this year is aimed at swelling the support of what W. W. Bennett, the club's president, and members of the organization declare to be Santa Monica's most important investment opportunity.

This city's high publicity programs have been credited here with a heavy share in the bay district's rapid growth in population and prosperity.

The bandits, who were carrying guns, and the other of whom was armed with one pistol, were attempting to force the door of the apartment in which Mrs. M. S. Shook, proprietor, had left a large sum of money that she had taken in during the past two days. When Dr. Selby, hearing the noise, rushed to the door, he saw the bandits and called the police, but the thieves became alarmed and fled.

FIRST RIBIER GRAPES SHIPPED FROM STATE BRING TOP PRICE

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 5.—Bringing as high as $5.85 per lug box, and averaging $4.16 for the lot, the first shipment of Melcher Ribier grapes ever made from California sold July 29 on the New York market realizing over twice as much as the other table varieties sold in the same market.

Deducting express, commissions and the cost of the lugs, this sale represented a net price to the grower of $208.93 per ton in the vineyard. This Ribier shipment was made by Carl A. Melcher, Kern county vineyardist.

Melcher, who first recognized the commercial possibilities of the Ribier grape, and said to have had more experience with the Ribier than any other grower, in reviewing the sale, spoke enthusiastically of the quality of this variety and expressed the greatest optimism as to its future.

ACHING TOOTH A KIDS TOURIST

Indians Victor Abides Fretful Molar in Ride Across Continent

VAN NUYS, Aug. 5.—C. H. Slosson, an auto tourist on his way to Los Angeles, stopped here today long enough to have a tooth pulled, and then went on to his destination. He hailed from Muncie, Ind.

"The molar started to ache the day I left Muncie, four weeks ago," he told the dentist. "It has ached in every town in every State as I have come west. Each time I started for a dentist, the pain suddenly would stop. The tooth has fooled me that way for about two scores of times. Today it fell to throbbing to beat the band. As soon as I headed for a dental chair, it again suddenly stopped. This time I let the tooth instead of letting it kid me again."

Slosson says he hopes to enjoy California. Ever since he left Muncie he says he has had a miserable time. All because of the erratically aching tooth.

NEW HAPPY GAP ROAD OPENED TO TRAVEL

VISALIA, Aug. 5.—The new road from the top of Happy Gap into Lake Sequoia is open for travel, according to reports from campers in the park and except for a few days when it will be closed again to finish widening and grading, will be open continuously for the rest of the season. The completion of this road gives a good alternate route out of General Grant Park past Sequoia Lake, site of the Y.M.C.A. summer camp. The road construction has been in charge of Foreman Redley.

ADVANCE QUOTATIONS OUT

Peach and Fig Growers Learn Amount of Initial Cash Payments to Be Made

FRESNO, Aug. 5.—Advance payments to growers of from 3 to 10 cents per pound on peaches and from 1 to 7 cents per pound on figs will be made by the California Peach and Fig Growers' association, it was announced today in connection with the monthly meeting of the growers' advisory council.

In both instances the prices will carry a differential of 1 cent according to grade. This policy was adopted by the association as a further incentive to growers to improve the quality of their fruit and it proved so successful that it was readopted this year.

The association will begin seasonal operations tomorrow morning when all the receiving stations will begin handling dried peaches and figs offered by members. Payment for the initial deliveries will be well under way next week, it was announced.

The schedule includes an advance payment of 1 cent per pound on cling peaches, 1 cent on kadota figs and 2 cents on first crop black mission figs.

The schedules of advances which are substantially the same as those of last year are: Peaches, C grade, 3 cents; B grade, 2 cents; A grade, 1 cent; extra fancy, 10 cents; fancy, 7 cents; extra fancy, 10 cents.

The advances on figs are given as 1 cent per pound on Adriatic figs, 1 cent on California figs, 1 cent on myrnes and Black Mission figs of the C grade, with differentials of one half of 1 cent according to grade up to a maximum of 4 cents per pound on extra fancy on Adriatic figs with standards at 14 cents.

Standard California growers are bringing an advance payment of 2 cents with 1 cent per pound differential up to 6 cents for extra fancy, and standard growers of the latter variety are scheduled for an advance payment of 3 cents, with the same differential up to a maximum of 7 cents per pound for extra fancy.
